The English language, its nomenclature, and usage continue to evolve. For the purpose of this document, the terms People of Color (POC) and People of the Global Majority (PGM) are used to describe non-White composers who, together, represent over 80% of the world's population. These people are members of diverse races and ethnic groups including but not limited to Asian, Black, Indigenous, and Latino/Latina. Such terms are among several that are being used today in an effort to use dignified, inclusive, and affirming language when referring to individuals. I am grateful to Dr. Sheila Caldwell, Wheaton College's Chief Intercultural Engagement Officer, for her insight into the ongoing evolution of language.

Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow. (Isaiah 1:17)
